The Muny is a non-profit 501(c)3 organization whose mission is to enrich lives by producing exceptional musical theatre, accessible to all, continuing its remarkable tradition in Forest Park.
The Muny offers a wide range of opportunities for musical theatre students. Our education initiatives have something for everyone, whether it’s a child of nine or a graduate student; an aspiring performer or a novice craftsman. Through mentoring, training and practical experience, young people acquire skills that will help them succeed in their chosen careers.

Muny/Webster Intensive for Emerging Young Artists

The Muny and Webster University’s Conservatory of Theatre Arts have joined forces to host a summer intensive for emerging young artists. This three-week program in St. Louis, auditions rising juniors and seniors in high school theatre programs across the nation. The top 12 are accepted to participate in an immersive training experience like no other!

Muny Internship Program

The Muny Internship Program offers a number of internships each summer in nearly every department of The Muny. Geared toward college and graduate students pursuing professional theatre careers, this program allows students to make meaningful contributions to the production of seven full-scale musicals and the management of America’s largest outdoor musical theatre.
